

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1940

To amend the Public Health Service Act to establish a Wellness Trust.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 2, 2009

Ms. MATSUI (for herself, Mr. BRALEY of Iowa, Mrs. CAPPS, and Mr. SARBANES) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce

A BILL

To amend the Public Health Service Act to establish a Wellness Trust.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Wellness Trust Act”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

6 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds as follows:

7 (1) Preventable and chronic diseases are the 8 epidemic of the 21st century. The number of people
9 with chronic conditions is rapidly increasing and it 10 is estimated that, if there is no intervention now, by

1 2025 nearly half of the United States population will 2 suffer from at least 1 chronic disease. About 70 per-3 cent of deaths and health costs in the United States
4 are attributable to chronic diseases (such as cardio-5 vascular disease and cancer), some of which may be 6 preventable. Nearly 90 percent of Medicare bene-
7 ficiaries have some type of chronic illness.

8 (2) This affects Americans' health. The United 9 States has the highest rate of preventable deaths
10 among 19 industrialized nations and lags behind 28
11 other nations in life expectancy. For example, obe-
12 sity, which is rising rapidly, contributes to a wide 13 range of problems, from diabetes to stroke to cancer.
14 The life expectancy for a 20-year old man may be 15 reduced by 17 percent due to obesity. If trends con-16 tinue, children's life spans may be shorter than 17 those of their parents for the first time in about a 18 century.

19 (3) The wellness gap also affects health care 20 costs. About 78 percent of all health spending in the 21 United States is attributable to chronic illness, much 22 of which is preventable. Chronic diseases cost the 23 United States an additional $1,000,000,000,000
24 each year in lost productivity, and are a major con-25 tributing factor to the overall poor health that is

1 placing the Nation's economic security and competi-
2 tiveness in jeopardy.

3 (4) Unlike some health care challenges, proven
4 preventive services and programs exist. If effective 5 risk reduction were implemented and sustained by 6 2015, the death rate due to cancer could drop by 29
7 percent. Improved blood sugar control for people 8 with diabetes could reduce the risk for eye disease, 9 kidney disease, and nerve disease by 40 percent.
10 Similarly, blood pressure control could reduce the 11 risk for heart disease and stroke by 33 to 50 per-12 cent.

13 (5) Yet, only half of recommended clinical pre-
14 ventive services are provided to adults. About 20
15 percent of children do not receive all recommended 16 immunizations, with higher rates in certain areas.
17 Nearly 70 percent of people with high blood pressure
18 do not now control it. And racial disparities in use 19 of prevention exist.

20 (6) The United States faces low use of preven-
21 tive services because of the low value placed on pre-22 vention, a delivery system bent toward fixing rather 23 than preventing problems, and financial disincentives
24 for prevention. Insurers have little incentive to invest 25 in preventive services today that will benefit other

1 insurers tomorrow. This is especially true for those 2 preventive services that reduce chronic diseases that 3 develop over a period of several years or decades.
4 The costs of prevention are incurred immediately 5 but most of its benefits are realized later, often by 6 Medicare.

7 (7) There is a low investment in prevention.
8 The United States spends only an estimated 1 to 3
9 percent of national health expenditures on preventive 10 health care services and health promotion. This has 11 not increased as much as one might expect since 12 1929, 1.4 percent, despite the development of expen-
13 sive screenings, early interventions, and the growth 14 of the preventable disease burden.

15 (8) The workforce to deliver prevention is also 16 insufficient. The supply of providers who are trained
17 to emphasize prevention is shrinking. Between 1997
18 and 2005, the number of medical school graduates
19 entering family practice residencies dropped by 50
20 percent. There is an acute shortage of community 21 health workers. Between 25 and 50 percent of the 22 existing Federal, State, and local public health work-
23 force is eligible for retirement in the next 5 years.
24 As of 2008, more than 75 percent of the existing 25 public health workforce has no formal public health

1 or prevention training. There is no national, uniform
2 credentialing system for public health or prevention 3 workers that would ensure that these workers are 4 trained in the basics of preventive care.

5 (9) A system that promoted full use of high-pri-
6 ority prevention could save lives. A recent com-
7 prehensive assessment found that 1,200,000 quality-
8 adjusted life years could be saved by achieving 90
9 percent use of just the following 3 services:

10 (A) Smoking cessation counseling.

11 (B) Use of aspirin to prevent heart at-12 tacks.

13 (C) Screening for colorectal cancer.

14 (10) A system that promoted full use of high-
15 priority prevention could reduce costs. For example, 16 complete, routine childhood vaccination could save
17 up to $40,000,000,000 in direct and societal costs
18 over time. Promoting screenings and behavioral 19 modifications in the workplace can lower absentee-
20 ism and, in most cases, health costs to firms. Pre-21 ventive health care services could reduce government
22 spending on health care. If all elderly received a flu 23 vaccine, health costs could be reduced by nearly 24 $1,000,000,000 per year. Over 25 years, Medicare
25 could save an estimated $890,000,000,000 from ef-

1 fective control of hypertension, and 2 $1,000,000,000,000 from returning to levels of obe-
 3 sity observed in the 1980s.

4 (11) Investing in community-level interventions
 5 that promote and enable proper nutrition, increased 6 access to physical activity, and smoking cessation 7 programs can prevent and mitigate chronic diseases,
 8 improve quality of life, increase economic produc-
 9 tivity, and reduce healthcare costs.

10 (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to create 11 a 21st century prevention system called the Wellness
 12 Trust that assures access to clinical and community-level 13 prevention services that improve health, quality of life, and 14 reduce healthcare costs.

15 SEC. 3. WELLNESS TRUST.

16 Title III of the Public Health Service Act (21 U.S.C.

8 service with payments.

9 “(3) USE OF STATE AND LOCAL GRANT SYS-
10 TEMS.—The Trustees shall utilize existing grant

10 preventive health care services.”; and

11 (3) in section 3011(a), add at the end the fol-
12 lowing:

13 “(8) Integration of prevention health priorities, 14 prevention data, and tracking of the provision of 15 preventive care by means of qualified electronic 16 health records.”.
